Internship in Localization Management – English

Goodgame Studios is Europe's fastest growing gaming company and one of Germany's most successful technology businesses. With more than 550 employees at our headquarters in Hamburg we develop innovative online games which are played by more than 160 million players in 25 languages across more than 200 countries. Our talented, motivated team of experts and newcomers forms the basis of our success. Become a part of the success story and apply now!

As an intern in localization management for English you will help us coordinate the localization of our online games and will work with a range of departments and external service providers. In addition you will be tasked with translating a range of texts from German into English.

Your job:

- Support efforts to localize our innovative casual games
- Work closely with our specialist departments and external service providers
- Translate from German into English and proofread texts
- Create style guides and glossaries
- Carry out linguistic testing on our games
- This 6 month internship is ideal for a co-op course or for recent graduates looking for an exciting start to their career. Combining the position with a university thesis is possible.

Your profile:

- Native-speaker level knowledge of English and excellent German, both written and spoken
- A nearly completed degree in translation studies or modern languages
- Some practical experience in this area or in project management is desirable
- Able to work independently, good communication skills and team spirit
- Enthusiastic about working in interdisciplinary teams and passionate about games

We offer:

- An exciting job where you can assume responsibility and develop professionally
- A dynamic team with friendly, highly-qualified colleagues from all over the world
- Strong, sustainable growth and fresh challenges every day
- Flat hierarchies and short decision paths
- A culture of mutual respect and an outstanding working environment
- Further training with workshops, language courses and technical reference works, a healthy work-life balance, regular team events, sporting and leisure activities and much more!
